-  Workplace Travel Survey
If you haven't surveyed employees this year, now is a good time to do so.

Your Move Forums
Local government and workplace champions come together to network and be inspired at these forums each quarter. Sign up to our eNewsletter for details.

Travel Surveys
Surveys help us understand how people travel to and from your school or workplace and measure the effect your activities are having.

Employee challenges
Walking, riding and running are great ways to stay active and beat the traffic. Encourage employees to sign up for a fun-run or cycling event and train while they commute or organise your own active commuter challenge.
